

Church Within A Church Movement

Clergy Application for Dual Covenant

The Church Within A Church Movement invites ordained clergy to apply for Dual Covenant with the Church Within A Church Movement.

Recognizing that a clergyperson's credentials are primary in his/her denomination, Church Within A Church Movement will grant the status of Dual Covenant to those who desire to align with Church Within A Church Movement's Mission Statement, Working Strategies and Theological Statement. By receiving Dual Covenant, clergy will be expected to be an active member of Church Within A Church Movement and support it with prayers, presence, gifts, service and witness.

This application will be reviewed and voted on by Church Within A Church Movement's national Coordinating Team.
